

Where to eat and drink in Glasgow during FEMS

Glasgow is full of great places to eat and drink. This is by no means an exhaustive list of places to eat and drink, but these are places that I like and lots of my friends like – I have tried to avoid the usual chain restaurants and pubs and tried to choose places that people will hopefully enjoy! There are places I have no doubt missed – but if in doubt – tweet me @paulhoskisson
